TUESDAY MORNING MAY 16.

NEWS FROM MEXICO.-We are indebted to a friend for a copy of the New Orleans Delta of the 9th, containing highly important intelligence from Mexico. It will be seen that Gen. Scott has left Vera Cruz and proceeded direct for his home near New York. This determination of Gen. Scott has greatly disappointed the citizens of the West and South generally. who hoped to have the opportunity of seeing the old Hero and cheering him on his way .-The letters from "Mustang," and the information concerning a peace are highly interesting and important and will command attention. arrival from Mexico.

THE CHILD AND THE ANGELS. BY CHARLES SWAIN.

The Sabbath sun was setting slow, Amidst the clouds of even; "Our Father,"-breathed a voice below-"Father, who art in heaven!"

Beyond the earth-beyond the cloud-Those infant words were given; "Our Father,"-angels sang aloud-"Father, who art in heaven!"

"Thy kingdom come"- still from the ground, That child-like voice did pray; "Thy kingdom come"-God's hosts resound-Far up the starry way! "Thy will be done,"-with little tongue,

"Thy will be done"-the angelic throng-Sing from seraphic shores. "For ever,"-still those lips repeat Their closing evening prayer;

That lisping love implores;

"For ever"-floats in music sweet-High 'midst the angels there! Thine be the glory evermore, From Thee may man ne'er sever: But every Christian land adore-Jehovah!-God!-for ever!

THE HOUR OF PRAYER. Child, amidst the flowers at play, While the red light fades away; Mother, with thine earnest eye, Ever following silently; Father, by the breeze at eve Call'd thy harvest-work to leave;-Pray! ere yet the dark hours be, Lift the heart and bend the knee.

Traveler, in the stranger's land, Far from thine own household band: Mourner, haunted by the tone Of a voice from this world gone; Captive, in whose narrow cell Sunshine bath not leave to dwell; Sailor, on the darkening sea;-Lift the heart and bend the knee.
